

NJHIT Interim Report June 2010

Summary of Recommendations

Introduction

Key terms and definitions

Executive Summary

ARRA and the Current State of Health IT and data exchange

Technological frameworks of Health IT in NEW Jersey

Health IT Policy

Tying Health IT Together: Implementing and supporting change

The Future State: A vision of Health IT in New Jersey

- ARRA and HITECH
- Health IT Policy
- Technological frameworks
- Implementing change with Health IT Policy and Technology
- Working towards the future state: a vision

- HITECH Act
- ONC and its functions
- Role of State of NJ and NJHITC
- Office of eHIT
- Other programs affecting HIT in NJ

- Functions of an HIE: GoFast priorities
- Identity Management and relevant standards
- Electronic Medical Records and Meaningful Use
- Personal Health Records
- Defining key healthcare transactions
- Data exchange and relevant document standards
- Security and Privacy: The technology and standards

- Identity Management errors, consequences and remedies
- Policies defining and enforcing meaningful use
- Personal Health Records- the consumers role: role and limitations
- The need for standards adoption for data exchange
- Privacy and Security: prevention, errors and remedies
- Governance: Key issues

- Implementing transformation: change management
- Understanding and implementing identity management at different levels
- Electronic Medical Records: education, selection and practice/institutional transformation
- Educating providers and professionals on Health IT
- Education citizens and consumers on PHRs and Health IT
- Privacy and Security: Educating institutions, professionals and the public

- Fulfilling meaningful use
- Real-time data sharing
- Consumer empowerment
- Cost reduction
- Research: Outcomes and comparative effectiveness analysis